

NORTH CAROLINA AQUARIUM AT PINE KNOLL SHORES

Let's Talk CO<sub>2</sub>

Learning, Sharing and Acting on Climate Change & Ocean Health

Nov. 19
9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

- Join scientists and regional experts as we explore the local and global implications of a higher CO<sub>2</sub> planet.
- We will discuss issues and solutions related to coastal North Carolina, with a focus on native plant and animal species.
- Topics include sea level rise, ocean acidification, coral bleaching, global warming and climate change, and offshore wind power.

This event is FREE to the public, but advanced registration is strongly encouraged, as space is limited!
